BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Mountaineers are in their 13th season in the Big 12, one of the nation's premier athletic conferences in the country.

Big 12 baseball has proven to be one of the best and most competitive conferences in the country, with a total of 139 NCAA Regional appearances and 30 College World Series appearances in the league's 29 seasons. In 2024, six of the league's nine teams made the NCAA Tournament, with two teams making a Super Regional.

Three new programs enter the Big 12 in 2025 – Utah, Arizona, and Arizona State – to bring the total number of teams in the conference to 14.

CHARACTER
Public, land-grant institution, founded in 1867. Across the three campuses of the WVU System in Morgantown, Keyser and Beckley, West Virginia University is changing lives and helping to create a brighter future. Our purpose remains to bring education, healthcare and prosperity to our state. WVU is one of only five flagship, R1, land-grant, community-engaged universities in the nation.

RESEARCH CLASSIFICATION
R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity, as described by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education.

ACCREDITATION
WVU is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. Many programs hold specialized accreditation.

GOVERNANCE
The WVU Board of Governors is the University's governing body. The Higher Education Policy Commission in West Virginia is responsible for developing, establishing and overseeing the implementation of a public policy agenda for the state's four-year colleges and universities. E. Gordon Gee is WVU's 24th president.

CAMPUS LOCATIONS AND FACILITIES
The WVU System is a family of distinctive campuses united by a single mission. From the groundbreaking research of our flagship in Morgantown to the student-centered focus of WVU Potomac State College in Keyser to the technology-intensive programs at WVU Institute of Technology in Beckley, we are creating a better future for West Virginia and the world.

The WVU Institute of Technology offers 25+ majors, including undergraduate engineering programs that have consistently ranked among the top in the nation according to U.S. News & World Report.

WVU Potomac State College offers 60+ majors and combines the personal attention of a small college with the affordable benefits of a major university.

The WVU System also includes Health Sciences locations in Charleston and Martinsburg; School of Nursing campuses in Morgantown, Charleston, Keyser, Bridgeport and Beckley; farms and forests throughout the state; and WVU Jackson's Mill State 4-H Camp.

The WVU Morgantown campus is in a town that was named the "No. 1 Small City in America" by BizJournals.com for its exceptional quality of life. Morgantown was also rated the ninth best college town in America by Business Insider and is within easy traveling distance of Washington, D.C., to the east, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the north, and Cleveland and Columbus, Ohio, to the northwest.

STUDENT PROFILE
Fall 2023 WVU System enrollment was 26,000+

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE
WVU recipients of prestigious scholarships include 25 Rhodes Scholars, 106 Gilman Scholars, 81 Fulbright Scholars, 50 Goldwater Scholars, 41 Critical Language Scholars, 29 Boren Scholars, 26 Truman Scholars, 6 Morris K. Udall Scholars, 5 USA Today All-USA College Academic First Team Members (and 11 academic team honorees), 3 Department of Homeland Security Scholars, 4 George C. Marshall (British) Scholars, 34 National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships, one Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Graduate Scholar and one Schwarzman Scholar.

WVU'S PURPOSE CENTER FIRST ON ANY COLLEGE CAMPUS
The Purpose Center offers self-discovery and connection opportunities, including purpose and strengths workshops and one-on-one coaching sessions. We help students use their strengths to reach their full potential (for free).

R1 RESEARCH INSTITUTION HIGHLIGHTS
WVU is one of only 146 colleges and universities to attain a ranking of R1, or very high research activity, alongside such institutions as Harvard, Yale, Columbia and Johns Hopkins.

WVU researchers are exploring the frontier in neuroscience research at the Rockefeller Neuroscience Institute, doing groundbreaking work on Alzheimer's disease and addiction treatment using focused ultrasound to safely open the blood brain barrier (reported by "60 Minutes," the New York Times, New England Journal of Medicine, the Washington Post and more).

WVU researchers are exploring the farthest reaches of the universe: dozens helped uncover evidence of ripples in space time.

WVU is one of two or three universities that serve as a majorhub for all branches of science contributing to NANOGrav – a galaxy-sized detector that is beginning to detect the gravitational universe.

Maura McLaughlin, Eberly Distinguished Professor of Physics and Astronomy, an internationally renowned WVU astrophysicist was selected as a member of the National Academy of Sciences, one of the highest honors in the scientific world.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS
Twelve Morgantown colleges and schools offer 310 majors in agriculture and natural resources; applied and human sciences; arts and sciences; business and economics; creative arts and media; dentistry; engineering and mineral resources; law; medicine; nursing; pharmacy; and public health. Hundreds of distance education and online classes are available.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
Students can choose from among more than 450 student organizations or participate in an active intramural program and a variety of club sports.

SERVICE AND LEARNING
The Center for Service and Learning develops and organizes service learning and volunteer opportunities for students and faculty. WVU is one of only 75 schools recognized by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for Community Engagement (recognized since 2010).

PARENTS CLUB
The Mountaineer Parents Club, with 20,000-plus members, connects parents and families with the student experience.

ALUMNI
Chartered in 1873, the WVU Alumni Association is made up of more than 210,000+ graduates worldwide in some 135 nations.

LIBRARIES
The WVU Libraries encompass seven libraries statewide. Facilities in Morgantown include the Downtown Campus Library, Evansdale Library, Health Sciences Library, Law Library and the West Virginia and Regional History Center. Onsite collections include more than 936,000 books, 1.5+ million e-books and 700+ databases.

ADMISSION AND APPLICATION TIMELINE
It's painless to apply — no required essays or recommendations, students are automatically considered for scholarships and can be admitted with or without ACT or SAT scores. Test scores may be required for certain majors or scholarships. Apply directly to WVU or use the Common Application. WVU offers a rolling admission (there is no official application deadline). Applicants can self-report courses and grades or submit a transcript to the WVU Office of Admissions. All students are required to submit an official final high school transcript upon enrolling. Applications are processed beginning Aug. 22 for admission the following fall. March 1 is the deadline for West Virginia residents to submit Promise Scholarship applications. Visit admissions.wvu.edu to learn more, including how to submit official transcripts and test scores.

STEVE SABINS

HEAD COACH • FIRST SEASON

Steve Sabins took over as the 20th head coach in West Virginia baseball history in June, 2024, after spending nine seasons as an assistant coach with WVU, including three as the associate head coach.

During Sabins' tenure in Morgantown, the Mountaineers have produced record-setting numbers offensively, while also bringing in the highest-ranked recruiting classes in program history. That includes the 2018 class, ranked No. 21 nationally – the Mountaineers' first top-25 recruiting class ever. A year later, the 2019 class added to the program's momentum, checking in at No. 23 nationally, marking the first time WVU signed back-to-back top-25 classes.

Sabins also led the charge in organizing six more top-40 classes from 2020-25.

Sabins worked to become one of the premier assistant baseball coaches in the country. In January 2020, he represented the Mountaineers at the Surefire Forum, an event that brings together some of the nation's top coaches to promote the future of the game.

In 2024, Sabins and the Mountaineers earned a second consecutive NCAA Regional berth where they went 3-0 in Tucson to advance to an NCAA Super Regional for the first time in program history.

After the season, Wet Virginia saw five of its players selected in the 2024 MLB Draft, led by JJ Wetherholt, who was taken 7th overall by the St. Louis Cardinals, the highest draft pick in program history.

Sabins helped lead the Mountaineers to new heights in 2023 as WVU took home a share of the Big 12 regular-season title for the first time in program history, the first conference championship for the Mountaineers since winning the Big East in 1996.

WVU put together a 40-20 overall record and 15-9 conference record after being picked sixth in the preseason poll. The Mountaineers went to their third NCAA Regional appearance in the last six completed seasons as WVU was the No. 2 seed in Lexington.

JJ Wetherholt led a group of 13 Mountaineers to be named All-Big 12 as the sophomore was named Big 12 Player of the Year. Pitchers Ben Hampton and Carlson Reed joined Wetherholt on the first team while pitcher Blaine Traxel and outfielders Landon Wallace and Braden Barry were named to the second team. In addition, seven other players earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention.

Wetherholt also became the first unanimous First-Team All-American in program history as he was honored by seven publications. He led the nation with a .449 batting average while slugging 16 home runs and 24 doubles while also stealing a Big 12-most 36 bases.

After the season, West Virginia saw five of his player sign pro contracts. Reed was drafted in the fourth round by the Pittsburgh Pirates while Barry was taken in the eighth round by the Toronto Blue Jays. Wallace (Angels), Tevin Tucker (Rockies), and Kevin Dowdell (Angels) all signed undrafted free-agent deals.

West Virginia won 33 games in 2022, including a program-record 14 in Big 12 Conference play. It was the only school in the league to avoid a three-game losing streak and was one of just five Power 5 program to accomplish that feat.

The individual accolades also rolled in, as right-handed pitcher Trey Braithwaite was named an All-America Third Team selection by the NCBWA, becoming the 24th All-American in program history. Braithwaite joined outfielder Austin Davis on the All-Big 12 First Team.

Additionally, catcher McGwire Holbrook earned second-team honors, while right-handed pitchers Noah Short and right-hander Jacob Watters, left-hander Ben Hampton and infielder JJ Wetherholt were Honorable Mention selections. Right-hander Chris Sleeper joined Wetherholt on the All-Big 12 Freshman Team.

Watters (Oakland) and Braithwaite (Cincinnati) went on to be selected in the MLB Draft in the fifth and 16th round, respectively. Outfielder Victor Scott II, who stole a school-record 38 bases in 2022, also was drafted in the fifth round by St. Louis.

Away from the diamond, outfielder Braden Barry and infielder Nathan Blasick earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, becoming the first WVU duo to be named to the team in the same year since 2003, while a program-record 15 were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team.

In 2021, Sabins helped the Mountaineers win multiple games at the Big 12 Championship for the sixth time in the last eight tournaments. West Virginia also finished the year with five wins over ranked opponents, including a pair of wins over No. 2 Texas on May 20 and 26, good for the highest-ranked victories in program history.

WVU saw its third freshman in the last two years earn freshman All-America honors in 2021, as Hampton was recognized by Perfect Game. Four players also earned All-Big 12 status, with left-handed pitcher Jackson Wolf leading the way with a spot on the second team. Additionally, catcher Paul McIntosh and Davis earned honorable mention status, while Hampton and infielder Mikey Kluska were selected to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

Following the year, four Mountaineer pitchers were taken in the 2021 MLB Draft. Wolf was the first WVU player to hear his name called, as he was taken in the fourth round by the San Diego Padres. Right-hander Ryan Bergert joined Wolf when he was selected in the sixth round by San Diego. Additionally, right-hander Madison Jeffrey (15th round) and left-hander Adam Tulloch (17th round) were each taken by the Los Angeles Dodgers.

In the classroom, a program-record 12 players were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team, including eight on the first team, also tops in team history.

WVU finished 11-5 in the COVID-19-shortened 2020 season, good for the program's best 16-game start since 2009. Additionally, two WVU newcomers, left-handed pitcher Jake Carr and infielder/catcher Matt McCormick, earned Freshman All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. It marked the first time two Mountaineers received the honor in the same season since Sabins' first season in Morgantown in 2016.

Total Years – Coaching 14
NCAA Tournaments 7

Prior to the team's shortened campaign last spring, the 2019 season was certainly one to remember for Sabins and the Mountaineers. The team finished 38-22, marking the second-most wins in program history. West Virginia also reached the Big 12 Championship Final for the second time in four seasons. Following the conference tournament, WVU was selected to host an NCAA Regional for the first time since 1955. It marked WVU's second NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four years.

West Virginia was ranked for the last eight weeks of the season in 2019, a program record, and it finished as high as No. 19 in the final NCBWA poll.

A program-record eight players were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, led by junior Alek Manoah, the 11th overall pick by the Toronto Blue Jays, tied for the highest draft pick in program history, along with senior Ivan Gonzalez (eighth round, Chicago White Sox), junior Nick Snyder (11th round, Arizona Diamondbacks), junior Kade Strowd (12th round, Baltimore Orioles), junior Brandon White (17th round, Los Angeles Angels), senior Darius Hill (20th round, Chicago Cubs), junior Chase Illig (29th round, New York Yankees) and junior Sam Kessler (34th round, Detroit Tigers). Manoah, the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, Dick Howser Trophy and CBF National Pitcher of the Year finalist, became the first player in program history to be named to more than five All-America teams in a single season.

With Sabins aiding in their development, a program-record 11 players earned All-Big 12 honors in 2019, including second-team selections Gonzalez, first baseman Marques Inman, Kessler and designated hitter Paul McIntosh and honorable-mention honorees second baseman Tyler Doanes, Snyder and White.

Offensively, WVU tied the program record for walks (257) and was third in stolen bases (98) and sacrifice flies (30). Individually, Hill, WVU's all-time doubles leader, ranked No. 4 in the country with 25 doubles in 2019, while Doanes was No. 31 with 21. White finished No. 37 nationally in stolen bases (26) and third in the Big 12 in sacrifice bunts per game (0.16), and Doanes finished third in the Big 12 in stolen bases (20) and sacrifice flies (6).

West Virginia again advanced to the Big 12 Championship semifinals in 2018, highlighting the campaign.

The squad stole 95 bases, which led the Big 12, was No. 17 nationally and third-most in program history. WVU also was third in the league in offense for the second consecutive year, with a .280 batting average.

Sabins saw numerous Mountaineers once again earn national postseason awards, highlighted by junior second baseman Kyle Gray, who was named to the ABCA All-America Third Team. Gray was joined by fellow junior Darius Hill on the ABCA East All-Region First Team. Additionally, eight players were named to an All-Big 12 Team, and five were honored on an Academic All-Big 12 Team.

WVU also continued its streak of having several players selected in the MLB Draft, as four Mountaineers were drafted. Junior Michael Grove was drafted in the second round by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Gray was selected in the 14th round by the New York Yankees, junior Jimmy Galusky was picked in the 20th round by the Chicago White Sox and senior BJ Myers was drafted by the Tampa Bay Rays in the 35th round. Grove became the fourth Mountaineer ever picked in the top two rounds and is WVU's highest draft pick since 2010.

Sabins helped lead WVU to record-breaking success in 2017, highlighted by an NCAA Tournament appearance. After going 36-26 and finishing fourth in the highly competitive Big 12 Conference, the Mountaineers earned an NCAA Tournament berth for the first time since 1996 and the 12th time in program history.

Sophomore designated hitter/right-handed pitcher Braden Zarbnisky headlined a long list of national and conference postseason honors in 2017. He was named to the NCBWA All-America Third Team, becoming the 17th All-American in team history. Zarbnisky also was named the NCBWA District II Player of the Year, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist and to the All-Big 12 First Team.

Additionally, junior outfielder Kyle Davis was named to the All-East Region First Team, and Galusky was recognized on the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List.

Zarbnisky was one of a program-record 12 Mountaineers to earn All-Big 12 Team honors, and for the second consecutive year, WVU earned a team-record-tying four Big 12 All-Tournament Team accolades. WVU also had plenty of success in the classroom, as eight Mountaineers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team and another three were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team

Two players were drafted following the 2017 season, as Davis was picked by the eventual World Series Champion Houston Astros in the 15th round and senior Jackson Cramer was selected in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals.

Sabins' first season with the Mountaineers was a memorable one, as WVU posted a 36-22 record and advanced to its first ever Big 12 Championship Game. West Virginia closed the year as one of the hottest teams in the country, winning 17 of its last 21 games.

With one of the youngest starting lineups in the country, Sabins helped guide the WVU to its best offensive numbers since joining the Big 12 Conference in 2013. The Mountaineers' batting average (.287), RBIs (312), runs scored (341), doubles (116), triples (21), total bases (847), slugging percentage (.432), walks (240), on-base percentage (.370) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (1.58) were all their best since moving to the Big 12.

Two Mountaineers were named to multiple Freshman All-America teams. Hill was honored five times, while Ivan Gonzalez was named to one Freshman All-America team.

WVU's wealth of postseason accolades also included 10 All-Big 12 Team and four All-Tournament Team honors, both program records. West Virginia's 10 Big 12 weekly honors also were the most in a season since joining the Big 12 and tied for the most by any school in the league in 2016.

Sabins came to Morgantown after four seasons at Oklahoma State, where he impacted all facets of the OSU program from 2011-15. He also brings experience as a head coach and general manager in collegiate summer leagues to WVU.

An Austin, Texas, native, Sabins served as OSU's first base coach and outfield coach in 2015 as a volunteer assistant coach. He assisted in recruiting and creating opponent scouting reports and also assisted with hitting and base running.

With Sabins on staff, the Cowboys made the NCAA Regionals each of the last three seasons, including a Super Regional appearance in 2014. Under Sabins' direction in 2015, the OSU outfield core had a .990 FDP% and all three primary starting outfielders earned All-Big 12 honors.

Sabins worked his way up onto the OSU coaching staff, first as the team's graduate assistant in 2012-13 and then as the player development coordinator in 2014 before becoming the volunteer assistant coach in 2015.

As the team's player development coordinator in 2014, Sabins worked directly with the strength, marketing, fundraising and academic staffs. Sabins also oversaw the team's summer bridge program, handled on-campus recruiting as well as video analysis and was the director of the Dugout Club.

Sabins began his career on the OSU staff as a graduate assistant during the 2012-13 seasons. He ran the video analysis program and scouted game and practice footage, providing film and feedback for hitters, infielders and pitchers. Sabins prepared scouting reports, organized Dugout Club events and implemented an academic accountability system to monitor and improve individual and team academic performances.

In 2013, Sabins served as the general manager of the Charles Town Cannons in their first season in the Valley Baseball League. Sabins led the Cannons to the postseason, becoming the only expansion team to make the playoffs in their first season. Building a team from the ground up, Sabins led the recruitment of collegiate players to the team, hired the coaching staff and worked with the marketing staff and Charles Town, West Virginia, city officials.

Sabins was the head coach of the VBL's Winchester Royals in 2012 and the head coach of the Leesburg Thunder of the Futures Wood Bat League in 2011. The Royals set league records for home runs and RBI, while Sabins guide the Thunder to a regular season and World Series championships.

As a player, Sabins began his collegiate career at Angelina Community College. He then attended Daytona Beach Community College before being recruited to play at Oklahoma State. After a medical redshirt season with the Cowboys, Sabins transferred to Embry-Riddle and was named the Sun Conference Player of the Year and an NAIA All-American.

Sabins graduated from Embry-Riddle with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2011. He earned a Master of Science degree in educational leadership-higher education from Oklahoma State. Sabins is married to his wife, Tabitha, and they have two children, Charlee and Tucker.

JACOB GARCIA

ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR • SIXTH SEASON

Jacob Garcia joined the Mountaineer coaching staff as the team's volunteer assistant in the summer of 2019. He was promoted to assistant coach and took over as the recruiting coordinator before the 2024 season.

Garcia assists the team with daily activities, including the implementation of technology and data, camp functions and the recruitment of student-athletes, while working primarily with pitchers and catchers. Additionally, Garcia helps in the transition of including student-athletes coming to WVU.

In 2024, Garcia and the Mountaineers earned a second consecutive NCAA Regional berth where they went 3-0 in Tucson to advance to an NCAA Super Regional for the first time in program history.

After the season, Wet Virginia saw five of its players selected in the 2024 MLB Draft, led by JJ Wetherholt, who was taken 7th overall by the St. Louis Cardinals, the highest draft pick in program history.

Garcia helped lead the Mountaineers to new heights in 2023 as WVU took home a share of the Big 12 regular-season title for the first time in program history, the first conference championship for the Mountaineers since winning the Big East in 1996.

WVU put together a 40-20 overall record and 15-9 conference record after being picked sixth in the preseason poll. The Mountaineers went to their third NCAA Regional appearance in the last six completed seasons as WVU was the No. 2 seed in Lexington.

JJ Wetherholt led a group of 13 Mountaineers to be named All-Big 12 as the sophomore was named Big 12 Player of the Year. Pitchers Ben Hampton and Carlson Reed joined Wetherholt on the first team while pitcher Blaine Traxel and outfielders Landon Wallace and Braden Barry were named to the second team. In addition, seven other players earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention.

Wetherholt also became the first unanimous First-Team All-American in program history as he was honored by seven publications. He led the nation with a .449 batting average while slugging 16 home runs and 24 doubles while also stealing a Big 12-most 36 bases.

After the season, West Virginia saw five of its players sign pro contracts. Reed was drafted in the fourth round by the Pittsburgh Pirates while Barry was taken in the eighth round by the Toronto Blue Jays. Wallace (Angels), Tevin Tucker (Rockies), and Kevin Dowdell (Angels) all signed undrafted free-agent deals.

The Mountaineers finished 33-22 in 2022, highlighted by a 14-10 mark in Big 12 play, the most league wins since joining the conference in 2013. WVU was an impressive 15-6 in games following a loss and were one of just five Power 5 programs to avoid a three-game losing streak.

Right-handed pitcher Trey Braithwaite earned All-America accolades by the NCBWA after his successful season out of the bullpen, and he was one of two WVU players named to the All-Big 12 First Team, joining outfielder Austin Davis. In all, a total of eight players were included on all-conference teams.

West Virginia also saw three players be selected in the MLB Draft, as right-handed pitcher Jacob Watters was a fourth-round pick by the Oakland Athletics, while outfielder Victor Scott II went in the fifth round to the St. Louis Cardinals. Braithwaite also heard his name called by the Cincinnati Reds in the 16th round.

In 2021, Garcia was part of a Mountaineer staff that helped left-handed pitcher Ben Hampton earn Freshman All-America honors by Perfect Game. A total of four players were recognized on All-Big 12 teams, as left-handed pitcher Jackson Wolf was named an All-Big 12 Second Team selection, while catcher Paul McIntosh and Davis earned honorable mention status. Additionally, Hampton and infielder Mikey Kluska were selected to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

WVU won multiple games at the Big 12 Championship for the sixth time in the last eight tournaments in 2021. The club also finished the year with five wins over ranked opponents.

Following the campaign, four West Virginia pitchers were taken in the 2021 MLB Draft. Wolf was a fourth-round pick to the San Diego Padres, while right-hander Ryan Bergert followed as a sixth-round selection by San Diego. Meanwhile, right-hander Madison Jeffrey (15th round) and left-hander Adam Tulloch (17th round) were taken by the Los Angeles Dodgers.

In his first season with the squad in 2020, the Mountaineers finished 11-5 in a COVID-19-shortened campaign, good for the program's best 16-game start since 2009. A pair of newcomers – left-handed pitcher Jake Carr and infielder/catcher Matt McCormick – were named Freshman All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

Garcia arrived in Morgantown following a one-year stint as the graduate assistant at Washington. With the Huskies, he compiled and created scouting reports, was active in on-campus recruiting, charted in-game statistics and served as the bullpen coach.

A native of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Garcia was a standout catcher at Northern Colorado, where he was a four-year letterman and three-time member of the Academic All-WAC team. He was named a team captain four times during his collegiate career, and he helped the Bears to their first-ever WAC Tournament appearance.

While at UNC, Garcia also interned for the strength and conditioning department and was active with baseball camps sponsored by the university.

Garcia earned his bachelor's degree in sports and exercise science and a master's in sport administration from Northern Colorado.

JIMMY ROESINGER

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON

Jimmy Roesinger joined the Mountaineer coaching staff in the summer of 2023.

In his first year with the Mountaineers, Roesinger helped the Mountaineers earn a second consecutive NCAA Regional berth where they went 3-0 in Tucson to advance to an NCAA Super Regional for the first time in program history.

After the season, Wet Virginia saw five of its players selected in the 2024 MLB Draft, led by JJ Wetherholt, who was taken 7th overall by the St. Louis Cardinals, the highest draft pick in program history.

Roesinger came to West Virginia from Air Force, we he served as an assistant coach since 2016 working with infielders as well as helping with the Falcons offense, base running, hitting, and recruiting efforts.

In eight years at Air Force, Roesinger was the volunteer assistant from 2016-19 before being promoted prior to the 2020 season. In 2023, the Falcons finished third in the Mountain West, the highest they have finished since joining the conference and found themselves back in the tournament championship game for the second straight season.

In 2022, he helped lead the Falcons to their first Mountain West title and first NCAA Regional appearance since 1969 while setting new program records in wins, hits, home runs, and runs scored.

The 2021 season for the Falcons also saw them finish with their highest RPI finish (57) and most conference wins (18) in program history. It was also the beginning of a two-year run for Paul Skenes at Air Force which saw him become the first Falcon to win Mountain West Player of the Year and eventually the No. 1 overall pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 2023 MLB Draft.

Prior to Air Force, Roesinger served as an assistant coach at Heidelberg University in Ohio, first serving as a graduate assistant for two years before being elevated for the 2015 season, where the Student Princes were ranked as high as No. 4 in the D3baseball.com rankings.

Other coaching stops for Roesinger include the Wilmington Sharks (Summer 2012), Lincoln Trail Community College (2012), and the Patterson Park Flyers (Summer 2011).

As a student-athlete at Dayton from 2008-11, Roesinger played in 208 games for the Flyers, accumulating 199 hits, 28, doubles, seven triples, eight home runs, 100 RBI, and 131 runs scored. In 2009, he hit .401 and was named first-team All-Atlantic 10 while leading the Flyers to their first A-10 regular-season championship.

Roesinger earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Dayton in 2010 before earning his MBA from Heidelberg in 2014.

JUSTIN ONEY

ASSISTANT COACH • 1ST SEASON

Justin Oney joined the Mountaineer coaching staff as the team's Director of Player Development in the summer of 2022 before ascending to Pitching Coordinator in 2024 and assistant coach for the 2025 season.

Oney assists the team with daily activities, implementation of technology and data, and camp functions while working primarily with the pitching staff.

In 2024, he helped the Mountaineer pitching staff to a 4.93 ERA, sixth best in the Big 12 and 51st in the country as WVU advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the firs time in program history.

Left-hander Derek Clark led the pitching staff with an 8-3 record, 3.23 ERA, and 91 strikeouts as he was named a third team All-American by D1Baseball and NCBWA in addition to being All-Big 12 First Team. He was also named the Tucson Regional Most Outstanding Player.

In the 2024 MLB Draft, four pitchers heard their name called as David Hagaman was taken by the Texas Rangers in the fourth round, Aidan Major was selected in the fifth round by the Cleveland Guardians, Clark went in the ninth round to the Los Angeles Angels, and Tyler Switalski was picked up by the San Francisco Giants in the 16th round.

In his first season in 2023, Oney helped the Mountaineers to a Big 12 title for the first time as the pitching staff had a 4.51 ERA, second-best in the conference and 31st lowest in the NCAA. West Virginia led the Big 12 with a 1.38 WHIP, 34th best in the country.

Pitching standouts in 2023 included Ben Hampton and Carlson Reed, who were both named to the All-Big 12 First Team while Blaine Traxel earned a spot on the second team. Reed was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the fourth round of the 2023 MLB Draft.

Oney arrived in Morgantown following a four-year stint as the pitching coach at Eastern Oklahoma State College. While at the junior college, he was apart of a staff that complied a record of 142-39 in the 4 seasons while helping 55 players move onto a four-year school, 21 of which were at the Division I level. Eastern Oklahoma State, also the Mountaineers, won two NJCAA Region II Tournament Championships as well as two Regular Season Championships, both coming in 2021 and 2022.

In 2022, Eastern Oklahoma State went 51-5 and Oney saw his staff pitch at a 3.60 ERA in 432.0 IP with 512 strikeouts and only 188 walks while holding opponents to a .220 batting average. In 2021 the Mountaineers were 47-7 with the pitching staff having a 3.92

ERA in 413.2 IP with 595 strikeouts and a .216 opponent batting average.

Prior to Eastern Oklahoma, Oney served as the Graduate Assistant for Oklahoma Wesleyan where he primarily assisted with the pitching staff.

A native of Logan, West Virginia, Oney pitched at Glenville State University where he earned his Bachelor's degree in Secondary Education.

BASEBALL SUPPORT STAFF

CHRIS REILLY

Director of Pitching & Pitching Personnel
First Season

Chris Reilly joined the West Virginia University baseball staff as the Director of Pitching and Pitching Personnel in July, 2024.

Reilly joined the Mountaineers from the Boston Red Sox, where he served as an area scout since 2020 and was named the George Digby Scout of the Year in 2022. Before working with the Red Sox, he was an area scout for the Oakland Athletics from 2016-20 and was named the Dick Bogard Scout of the Year in 2018. He has additional professional scouting experience working for the Florida Marlins from 2009-12.

At the collegiate level, Reilly was an assistant coach for Daytona State College from 2009-16, serving as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. In 2015, the Daytona State pitching staff had a 2.68 ERA which ranked fourth in the NJCAA and was the lowest in program history. He also worked for the Falcons from 2005-07, helping lead the team to back-to-back Mid-Florida Conference championships.

Between stints at Daytona State, Reilly was an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati from 2007-09. The Bearcats set a program record with 39 wins in 2008 as the pitching staff put together a 4.37 ERA, the lowest for Cincinnati since 1979.

Reilly pitched at both Seton Hall University (2000-01) and Oklahoma State University (2002). He was named All-Big 12 Honorable Mention after leading the Cowboys in wins, innings pitched, and strikeouts. Reilly was also named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American in 2000 while with the Pirates.

He signed with the Baltimore Orioles after college and played two seasons in the organization before pitching for two seasons with the Windy City Thunderbolts in the Frontier League.

Reilly earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Oklahoma State in 2005. A native of Bound Brook, N.J, he and his wife Megan have three daughters, Harper, Stella, and Kate.

JOEY CUOMO

Director of Operations
Sixth Season

Joey Cuomo was named the West Virginia University baseball program's director of operations in June 2022.

Cuomo's responsibilities include managing the day-to-day operation of the program, organizing all aspects of the team's travel and coordinating community outreach work and fundraising opportunities. He also schedules on-campus visits by recruits and manages the team's budget.

Previously, Cuomo served as the team's director of player development for three seasons (2020-22). He handled all aspects of camp management and operation, including marketing and budgeting. He also generated player/game data reports and assisted the staff in a variety of areas.

A native of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, Cuomo spent time as a student manager at WVU from 2017-19. He also served as the head coach of Cumberland Valley Twilight Baseball (2018-19), was an assistant at Cumberland Valley High (2018-19) and worked as the camp director for Cumberland Valley youth baseball (2016-18).

He graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in applied mathematics and statistics from West Virginia University in May 2019.

STEVEN ROSIER

Athletic Trainer
Third Season

Steven Rosier arrived at West Virginia in August 2022 and serves as the assistant director of athletic training and primary athletic trainer for the Mountaineer baseball team.

Rosier came to WVU following a two-year stint at Central Michigan from 2020-22. At CMU, he was responsible for daily health care for the Chippewa football and baseball programs, including preventative care, immediate care, treatments, and rehabilitations. He also oversaw day-to-day operations of athletic training facilities and managed COVID-19 testing for all spring sports to meet conference, state, and national guidelines.

Prior to that, Rosier worked at Lenoir-Rhyne University from 2017-20, as well as Lincoln Memorial University from 2016-17.

A native of Montgomery, Minnesota, Rosier graduated Minnesota State-Mankato with a bachelor's of athletic training in 2014. He also received his Master of Arts in Teaching (physical education) from West Alabama in 2016. While there, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

Rosier is certified by BOC Inc. and NPI. He also holds certifications in American Red Cross (CPR/AED, ARC Instructor) and has specializations in mental health First Aid, human movement, KAATSU BFR, OnBaseU pitching and hitting, and performance enhancement.

SEASON PREVIEW

Season Outlook 48

SEASON OUTLOOK

Off its first Super Regional appearance in program history, the West Virginia University baseball team returns with high expectations for the 2025 season.

Steve Sabins begins his first season as head coach of the Mountaineers after spending nine years on staff, including associate head coach since 2022. He takes over for Randy Mazey, who wrapped up his 12-year tenure with a 372-274 record during his time in Morgantown.

The Mountaineers finished the 2024 season with a 36-24 record and 19-11 mark in Big 12 play, the most conference wins since joining the league in 2013. West Virginia earned the No. 3 seed in the Tucson Regional and went on to go 3-0, defeating Dallas Baptist and Grand Canyon twice to take home the regional title and advance to the Chapel Hill Super Regional. Against the No. 4 overall seed Tar Heels, West Virginia put up a valiant effort, but ultimately dropped two one-run contests.

The Mountaineers return 22 players from last year's squad including junior catcher Logan Sauve, who was recently named to the Preseason All-Big 12 team. Senior Kyle West and junior Sam White also return for WVU after earning Honorable Mention All-Big 12 in 2024 as does senior Grant Hussey and his 37 career home runs, the most in program history.

On the mound, West Virginia brings back a multitude of arms including juniors Carson Estridge, Gavin Van Kempen, and Robby Porco, as well as sophomores Joseph Fredericks and Chase Meyer, all of whom are expected to play big roles for the Mountaineers this season.

To help get ready for the new campaign, here are a few notes about the '25 Mountaineers.

- West Virginia begins its 131st season of baseball on Feb. 14 on the road against Jacksonville.
- Steve Sabins takes over the reigns as the 20th head coach in program history. He has spent the last nine years on staff, including the las three as associate head coach.
- The Mountaineers have finished with a .500-or-better record in 11 of the last 12 seasons.
- The Mountaineers' 56-game schedule includes 14 meetings with 2023 NCAA Tournament teams.
- 2024 will be the 11th season the Mountaineers play at Wagener Field at Kendrick Family Ballpark. The field was named after Rick and Jay Wagener on Aug. 30, 2021, following a major gift donation to the program. Rick Wagener was a standout pitcher at WVU from 1968-71.
- The stadium was rebranded as Kendrick Family Ballpark in 2024 after a generous donation by WVU alum and Arizona Diamondbacks principal owner Ken Kendrick.
- WVU is set to play 25 home games this spring. The squad has had a winning record at the facility for nine straight years and is coming off a 17-6 home record in 2024.
- The Big 12 enters a new era with the addition of three new teams joining the conference. The Mountaineers will host first-year teams Arizona and Utah while going on the road to play Houston for the first time after joining the league last year. The Mountaineers will not play Arizona State this season.
- WVU returns 22 players from last season's squad, including nine who started at least 25 games.
- The Mountaineers were picked fourth in the 2024 Big 12 Preseason Poll, the highest predicted finish since joining the conference.
- Junior catcher Logan Sauve was named to the Preseason All-Big 12 team. He also earned a spot on the All-Big 12 Preseason Team by Perfect Game as did senior first baseman Grant Hussey.

- Junior Sam White and senior Kyle West both return after earning All-Big 12 Honorable mention status a season ago.
- The Mountaineers had five players drafted in the 2024 MLB Draft, including JJ Wetherholt who went No. 7 overall to the St. Louis Cardinals. The infielder finished his Mountaineer career as a 9x All-American after hitting .370 with 206 hits, 29 home runs, 129 RBI, 148 runs, and 57 stolen bases in 145 games for the Mountaineers.
- Four other players the Mountaineers will have to replace after getting drafted include RHP David Hagaman (4th Round, Texas Rangers), RHP Aidan Major (5th round, Cleveland Guardians), LHP Derek Clark (9th round, Los Angeles Angels), and LHP Tyler Switalski (16th round, San Francisco Giants). RHP Hayden Cooper also signed as free agent with the New York Mets.
- The Mountaineers also had a few key players graduate including third baseman Reed Chumley, who led the Mountaineers with 16 home runs.
- West Virginia welcomes 21 newcomers to the mix this season made up of 14 freshmen and seven transfers.
- Left-handed pitcher Ben McDougal (Potomac State) and infielder Chase Swain (Manhattan) transfer in as juniors. McDougal went 12-6 with a 4.56 ERA and 130 strikeouts in 92.2 innings over two seasons with the Catamounts while Swain was named first team All-MAAC after hitting .392 with five home runs and 15 stolen bases for the Jaspers.
- Outfielder Jace Rinehart (USC Upstate) and right-handed pitchers Reese Bassinger (Tarlton State) and Tyler Hutson (Southern Indiana) all enter as seniors. Rinehart, a native of Mannington, W.Va., hit .345 with 24 home runs in three seasons with the Spartans and was a two-time All-Big South second team member. Bassinger went 5-2 with 3.06 ERA in his lone season at Tarleton State while Hutson had 132 strikeouts in 132.2 innings with the Screaming Eagles over three years.
- Pitchers Griffin Kirn (Quincy) and Jack Kartsonas (Kent State) bring a combined nine years of college baseball experience to the Mountaineers. Kirn was named the GLVC Pitcher of the Year after going 8-1 with a 2.96 ERA while Kartsonas made 15 starts in 35 career appearances for Kent State.
- This year's crop of freshmen for WVU was named the No. 39 class in the country by Perfect Game. Gavin Kelly is the highest-ranked player in the class for the Mountaineers, clocking in at No. 267 overall in the nation and No. 29 among catchers.
- WVU's 40-man roster consists of 14 freshmen, two redshirt freshmen, six sophomores, 12 juniors, one redshirt junior, six seniors, one redshirt senior and one graduate student.
- The Mountaineers will be represented by 14 states and one Canadian province this season. A team-leading nine players hail from Pennsylvania.
- This year's team also features seven players from the Mountain State: senior first baseman Grant Hussey (Parkersburg), senior infielder Kyle West (Hedgesville), senior outfielder Jace Rinehart (Mannington), junior pitcher Ben McDougal (Bridgeport), freshman pitcher Bryant Yoak (Big Bend), freshman outfielder Maxwell Molessa (Pullman), and freshman pitcher Bryson Hoff (Charleston).

ANDREW CARIDI PLAY-BY-PLAY

Andrew Caridi was named director of broadcasting and voice for baseball and women's basketball in August 2022.

Caridi is an award-winning West Virginia University alumnus with a recognized connection to Mountaineer athletics behind the mic. He has been calling West Virginia game action for Big 12 Now on ESPN+ the last two years, handling play-by-play for basketball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and baseball. Caridi also served as a fill-in play-by-play voice for women's basketball. In 2019 and 2020, he was honored as West Virginia Broadcaster's Association best play-by-play, and the Sportscasters Talent Agency of America named Caridi to the elite list of collegiate broadcasters nominated for a Jim Nantz Award.

In addition to his play-by-play duties, Caridi will host the Mountaineer football pregame and postgame radio shows throughout the season.

Cardi's affinity with West Virginia has extended to WVU Esports as well. He was host and commentator for numerous esports events by LEARFIELD's LevelNext in 2021, including WVU Esports Collegiate Rocket League Qualifiers, LevelNext FIFA22 College National Championship and various sponsored tournaments featuring Rocket League, FIFA and NBA2K.

Caridi previously served as the radio voice of Shepherd University football and basketball with WVRC Media until March 2020.

JAKE WEGHORST ANALYST

Former Baylor pitcher and West Virginia assistant coach enters his first season as the analyst for the WVU baseball team.

A Lorena, Texas native, Weghorst pitched two seasons for Baylor after two years at Angelina College and had a 3.00 ERA with 60.0 career innings with the Bears.

After his playing days were over, he stayed involved with baseball, serving as the volunteer assistant coach at UT Martin in 2009. After one year with the Skyhawks, he came to Morgantown to serve as the volunteer assistant coach with the Mountaineers before being elevated to full-time assistant for the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

After his two years with WVU, he served as an assistant coach at Fairmont State in 2013. Weghorst also served as the head coach of the Front Royal Cardinals, a collegiate summer baseball team in the Valley Baseball League.

Galusky owns a bachelor's degree in Health, Human, Human Performance and Recreation from Baylor.

2024 SEASON REVIEW

- West Virginia finished the year with a 36-24 overall record and 19-11 mark in Big 12 play in head coach Randy Mazey's 12th and final season in Morgantown.
- The Mountaineers won the NCAA Tucson Regional and advanced to its first Super Regional in program history.
- It was the first time since 1961-64 that WVU has made back-to-back regional appearances.
- In Tucson, the Mountaineers went 3-0, defeating Dallas Baptist and Grand Canyon twice to win the regional title.
- West Virginia advanced to the Chapel Hill Super Regional to play No. 4 North Carolina where the Mountaineers fell in two close games, 8-6, and 2-1.
- The Mountaineers set a new program record with 19 Big 12 wins
- For the eighth consecutive season, WVU was ranked in the Top 25, peaking at No. 12 in the NCBWA poll.
- The Mountaineers set a new single-season record with 91 home runs, which was also 45th most in the country.
- Once again, WVU finished in the top 50 in the NCAA in stolen bases with 88.
- The pitching staff had a 4.93 ERA, good enough for 51st in the country and five shutouts, 14th-most in the nation and second in the Big 12.
- The Mountaineers were 31st in the country by allowing just 8.52 hits per nine innings.
- Senior Derek Clark was named to the All-Big 12 First Team after going 8-3 with a 3.23 ERA and 91 strikeouts in 97.2 innings pitched. He finished the season with four complete games, second-most in the country.
- Clark was named the Tucson Regional Most Outstanding Player after throwing a complete game against Dallas Baptist in the opener before getting the final two outs against Grand Canyon in the clinching game.
- Junior JJ Wetherholt, the Preseason Big 12 Player of the Year, was named to the All-Big 12 First Team for the second consecutive season despite missing 24 games. He hit .331 with eight home runs, eight doubles, 30 RBI, and 30 runs scored
- Clark was named to the D1 Baseball and NCBWA All-America Third Team while Wetherholt earned a spot on the Perfect Game All-America Third Team.
- Clark and Wetherholt were both named ABCA All-Region with Clark on the first team and Wetherholt on the second team.
- Wetherholt was named a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy.
- Senior Reed Chumley was named to the All-Big 12 Second Team after hitting.311 with a team-high 16 home runs, 15 doubles, and 50 RBI.
- Juniors Aidan Major and Kyle West as well as sophomore Sam White were named All-Big 12 Honorable Mention, meaning they received at least one vote from other Big 12 coaches.
- Sophomore Logan Sauve and junior Brodie Kresser were both named CSC Academic All-District.
- Junior Grant Hussey became the all-time program leader in home runs when he hit his 36th against Pitt at PNC Park.
- Wetherholt became the 22nd player in program history to reach 200 hits
- Five Mountaineers were selected in the 2024 MLB Draft, led by Wetherholt going No. 7 to the St. Louis Cardinals, the highest pick in program history.

The West Virginia baseball team plays in one of the premier collegiate baseball venues in the country, Wagener Field at Kendrick Family Ballpark. The 3,500-capacity ballpark features state-of-the-art fan and player amenities.

In what was touted as one of the best collaboration efforts seen in the state of West Virginia, Kendrick Family Ballpark opened its doors in 2015. The $21-million ballpark is arguably the top facility in the region and the clubhouse amenities rivals those in Major League Baseball.

Kendrick Family Ballpark received brand new turf ahead of the 2024 seasons, a synthetic surface to accommodate severe weather and heavy use The mound was also replaced with a synthetic surface after using a clay pitchers mound since opening. The dimensions are 325 feet down the left and right field lines, 375 feet to the power alleys and 400 to center field.

The venue features 2,500 permanent seatbacks and can be expanded to hold 3,500 fans with standing room areas. All seats are protected by netting that provides an unobstructed view for all fans.

The ballpark took on Rick and Jay Wagener's namesake on Aug. 30, 2021, following a major gift donation to the program. Rick Wagener was a standout pitcher at WVU from 1968-71. Following a gift from WVU Alum and owner of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Ken Kendrick, the facility was renamed Kendrick Family Ballpark in 2024.

There are three different areas to enter the ballpark and two ticket booths, while the concourse features a team shop, two concession areas, public restrooms and a large party deck that supports numerous standalone vendors.

Along with a high-definition scoreboard and videoboard and a state-of-the-art lighting system, Monongalia County Ballpark is one of top collegiate baseball facility in the country.

Just beyond the right field fence serves as the everyday home for the Mountaineers, with clubhouse amenities rivaling those in Major League Baseball. The building features a player's locker room with full-size lockers, coaches' locker room and offices, player's lounge, team theater, indoor and outdoor batting cages, a fully-equipped athletic training room and equipment room.

The press box features three luxury suites with high-end finishes and indoor/outdoor seating, a spacious television booth, three radio booths, a 20-seat press area, a video control room and numerous booths for game operations.

The Mountaineers opened Kendrick Family Ballpark with a 6-5, 13-inning victory against Butler on April 10, 2015. WVU owns a 145-73 record in the venue entering the 2025 season.

WVU has experienced record-setting attendance numbers each year in the new ballpark, most notably during an exciting 2024 sesaon. The support of Mountaineer Nation was certainly felt, as the total attendance and average attendance records both were broken, highlighted by a single-game record crowd of 4,614 on April 16, against Pitt. Nine of the top 25 atttended games took place in 2024 and an additional eight more in 2023.

Kendrick Family Ballpark was named the Baseball-Parks.com Ballpark of the Year for 2015. The annual award recognizes a new or remodeled stadium with the best combination of site selection, exterior appearance, architectural design and fan amenities.

WVU PRESIDENT E. GORDON GEE, J.D., ED.D

Currently serving for a second time as president of West Virginia University, Dr. E. Gordon Gee has been a leader in higher education for more than four decades. In 2009 Time magazine named him one of the top 10 university presidents in the United States. Ten years later, the website Great Value Colleges named him the nation's top university president. In addition to his service at West Virginia University, Gee served as president of The Ohio State University (twice), Vanderbilt University, Brown University, and the University of Colorado.

Born in Vernal, Utah, Gee graduated from the University of Utah with an honors degree in history and earned his J.D. and Ed.D. degrees from Columbia University. Before starting his career in higher education, he clerked under Chief Justice David T. Lewis of the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals and was a judicial fellow and staff assistant to the U.S. Supreme Court, where he worked for Chief Justice Warren Burger.

He is the co-author of more than a dozen books, including his latest, What's Public about Public Higher Education, and two recent ones, Leading Colleges and Universities and Land-Grant Universities for the Future. He has also authored many papers and articles on law and education. His service on education-governance organizations and commissions is extensive. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees Executive Committee for the National 4-H Council and the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America. Recently, he was awarded the Abraham Lincoln Vision Award by the National 4-H Council, He served as chair of the Big 12 Board of Directors Executive Committee for the 2017-18 year and is a Big 12 representative on the College Football Playoff Board of Managers. He is a Member of the Center for Economic Development (CED) Task Force on Building a More Civil and Just Society and an inaugural member of the Education Advisory Board (EAB) Presidents Advisory Council.

WVU VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
WREN BAKER

The Baker Family: Reagan, Addisyn, Heather and Wren

In his first two years as West Virginia's vice president and director of athletics, Wren Baker has faced every challenge head on and has never looked back. His energy has ignited a department, which turned in unprecedented success in 2023-24.

A bowl victory, a men's soccer College Cup appearance and a first-ever baseball Super Regional were just some of the big moments in year two under Baker, and his high-energy and success have been contagious for Mountaineer Athletics in competition and in the classroom.

Athletic success and best-ever academic achievement by Mountaineer student-athletes have highlighted Baker's tenure, while the department also turned in its second-best fundraising numbers ever during the 2024 athletic year.

Baker's success at WVU did not come overnight. He first traveled the state to learn its culture, met Mountaineer fans from all over the world and immersed himself on what it meant to be a proud West Virginian. The results of Baker's approach and work ethic speak volumes and have re-energized West Virginia Athletics.

Despite already hiring five new head coaches, creating a 20-year facility master plan and developing the department's strategic vision for the coming years, Baker's plate continues to be full. Budget concerns, a competitive NIL structure, lack of premium seating options in his two major sports venues and new revenue generation are being addressed by his administration to solidify the future of West Virginia Athletics.

WVU President E. Gordon Gee named Baker as WVU's vice president and director of intercollegiate athletics on Nov. 30, 2022. He has oversight of 18 varsity sports, a department budget of more than $90 million, approximately 250 employees and nearly 500 student-athletes.

Baker is WVU's 13th director of athletics and came to Morgantown from the University of North Texas, where he had been the associate vice president and athletics director since 2016. With previous stops at Missouri, Memphis, Northwest Missouri and Rogers State, he brought more than 20 years of experience to WVU.

At North Texas, seven Mean Green programs combined to win 17 conference or division championships during Baker's tenure. UNT also reached new heights in the classroom under Baker's leadership, posting its top APR scores and four consecutive department Graduation Success Rate (GSR) records. Baker led record fundraising years at North Texas, and the overall top five largest gifts ever at UNT came under Baker's leadership.

Prior to North Texas, Baker was the deputy director of athletics at Missouri from 2015 to 2016, serving as the top advisor and chief of staff.

Before Missouri, he spent time at Memphis from 2013-15 as deputy athletics director.

From 2011-13, Baker was athletics director at NCAA Division II power Northwest Missouri State. From 2006-11, Baker served as the first athletics director at Rogers State in Claremore, Oklahoma, where he was also the school's first men's basketball coach. His team went 20-11 in his only season at the helm, and during his tenure, he developed a full-scale, competitive collegiate athletics program. In 2005, he was the principal and athletics director for Valliant Public Schools, and at age 26, was the youngest principal in Oklahoma history.

Originally fom Valliant, Oklahoma, Baker earned his bachelor's degree in education from Southeastern Oklahoma State in 2001 where he was a member of the honors program. He went on to earn his master's degree in education leadership from Oklahoma State in 2003.

While at Oklahoma State, Baker was a graduate assistant and basketball operations assistant for the Cowboys' men's basketball program under legendary head coach Eddie Sutton. During his time with OSU, the Cowboys posted a 102-30 record, reaching four NCAA tournaments with trips to the 2004 Final Four and the 2005 Sweet 16.

Baker and his wife, Heather, a Bokchito, Oklahoma, native, have two daughters, Addisyn and Reagan.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA SERVICES
The West Virginia University athletics communications office will be available throughout the 2025 baseball season to accommodate any media requests. The following are some guidelines that should make it easy for media members to cover the Mountaineers. Any additional questions should be directed to Assistant Director of Athletics Communications Adam Grossman.

CREDENTIALS
Credentials for the 2025 baseball season can be picked up on game days at Gate A outside Monongalia County Ballpark starting two hours before the game. You may request a credential by emailing WVU baseball contact Adam Grossman at adam.grossman@mail.wvu.edu. Credentials can be requested up until 24 hours prior to the start of each home game.

PRESS ROOM
A limited amount of seating will be available in the press room at Monongalia County Ballpark. Masks are encouraged inside the press box. Due to press room capacity, only a limited number of media members will be credentialed. If space permits, only one media member per outlet will be credentialed.

PRESS ROOM SERVICES
Game notes will be available digitally at WVUsports.com. A limited supply of physical games notes will be distributed on game day.

- Statistics – Stat sheets, lineups and play-by-play will not be passed out at games this season. As in the past, StatBroadcast live stats will be available online throughout the game.
- Final Stats – A copy of final statistics will be available for pick-up after the game at a designated location and also will be available online.

POSTGAME PRESS ROOM
Due to postgame cleaning protocols, the press room is available for two hours after the conclusion of the final postgame interview. Please make other working arrangements if the two-hour closing time is not sufficient for your needs. Please remember the closing time is not two hours after the conclusion of the game, rather two hours after the conclusion of interviews.

PHOTOGRAPHY/ VIDEOGRAPHY
In accordance with updated Big 12 policy, media photographers and videographers will be granted field-level access this season. Photographers and videographers will have the opportunity to work at the concourse level of the ballpark and/or field-level camera wells with the understanding of a continued, committed effort to maintain social distancing.

INTERVIEWS
Postgame interviews will resume on the field for credentialed media following the conclusion of each home game this season. Coach Randy Mazey and selected players will be made available.

Any member of the media wishing to interview a player or a member of the coaching staff during the week should contact WVU baseball/assistant director of athletics communications Adam Grossman, via email (adam.grossman@mail.wvu.edu) or phone (304- 293-2821), at least 24 hours in advance. Cell phone numbers will not be provided, and all WVU student-athletes have been instructed to not conduct interviews without prior approval from the athletics communications staff.
